Eastham Is Proud Of Its Unexcelled Natural Beauty

Much of Eastham's unparalleled beauty is in the heart of the new Cape Cod National Seashore. At a delightful vantage point near Route 6 where Nauset and Schoolhouse Roads meet you overlook Salt Pond, its inlet, the dunes and the ocean. Here will be located the main Park Service buildings for the central section, the heart of the Seashore.

As you approach this site along Route 6 you may see flights of ducks or shore birds over fabled Nauset Marsh. You may see the spray of the surf if the mood of the Atlantic is tumultuous enough. And all this splendor, all this natural greatness that our Eastham ancestors knew is to be preserved to retain its rich unspoiled atmosphere for you and for future generations.

A Statement by Robert F. Gibbs

Superintendent Cape Cod National Seashore

The present headquarters of the Cape Cod National Seashore is located in the former Nauset Coast Guard Station at the end of Doane Road, in Eastham.

The primary purpose of the Cape Cod National Seashore is the preservation of the natural and historic features. At the same time the Service is charged with the responsibility of making it possible for visitors to see and enjoy the area.

To assist in carrying out the responsibilities of the Service, Park Rangers, Naturalists and Historians are on duty dressed in the National Park Service uniform. Visitors should feel free to contact this group whenever they need assistance, advice or information. Personnel may also be found on duty at the Information Station on Route 6 near the Orleans circle, and at the Headquarters in Eastham.

The National Park Service is restoring areas damaged by erosion and unwise use through a dune stabilization program. Examples of such a

No matter which way you do . . .

. . . your fishing, it's fun in Eastham

DO YOU HAVE YOUR OWN BOAT?

There are launching ramps and boat trailer parking facilities that enable you to skipper your own craft in search of the many different kinds of salt—or fresh-water fish in Eastham waters.

SHELLFISHING

The shellfish (clams, oysters, quahogs and others) are not so plentiful now as in years gone by. But the Town of Eastham does plant seed quahogs in Salt Pond and here on a Sunday a pailfull dug at low tide will provide an interesting activity and delicious eating.

From Beach or Boat Fishing In Eastham Provides Great Sport

During the summer the striped bass is king of salt water game fish in Cape Cod waters and Eastham's striper fishing is hard to beat. Surf casting all along the tides at Nauset Beach lures the experienced and the novice to try for the "big ones." And charter sport fishing boats, many skippered by Eastham men, will take you from Rock Harbor in quest of stripers offshore in the Bay.

Bluefish entice the angler too and are caught in both surf and bay in season. Flounder, tautog and a number of other good eating bottom fish make most any fishing trip from Eastham's shores something to recall happily.

Eastham's Town Cove is an excellent spot for flounder and plaice fish and trolling for striped bass here offers additional thrills. There are several boat liveries on the Cove shore so fishing can be fun for all the family.

From nearby Provincetown several sport fishing charter boats make runs for the tuna which begin moving into Cape waters in June. Generally they abound here until November, ranging in weight from about one hundred to a thousand pounds.

The fresh water ponds of Eastham, well stocked with fish, offer the angler much added sport with rod and reel. Bass, pickerel, white and yellow perch and horned pout can be taken from these waters.

No license required for salt water fishing. See Page 33 for information on fresh water fishing licenses.

Who enjoys it most, two mermaids in the surf

...or some boys, their dog in an Eastham pond?

Eastham's Famous and Easy-to-Reach Beaches Give Healthful Relaxation and Fun For All

Eastham's renowned beaches, both bay and ocean, are never more than a few minutes away no matter where you stay here. Nauset or the Great Beach extends for over five miles along the Atlantic Ocean in Eastham. Its broad sands play host to thousands yet it is never crowded for leisurely strolls or, between dips, for relaxation to the tune of the surf's steady orchestration.

Castle building is an art the youngsters enjoy as the tide ebbs and there's beach play and healthful exercise aplenty. Nauset Beach is ideal for all bathers at low tide but parents of very young children may prefer the warmer and generally shallower bathing available at high tide at the many public beaches along Eastham's Cape Cod Bay shore.

Clear, fresh water ponds, too, offer unexcelled bathing when you prefer a change from salt and surf.

ATTENTION BATHERS! While on the Beach

DO

- 1—Call for help when you think you need it.
- 2—Report to Life Guard for First Aid Treatment.
- 3—Ask Life Guard for any information about tides, runouts, etc.
- 4—Call Orleans 117 for emergency on beach or in water.
- 5—Help us keep the beach safe and clean.

DON'T

- 1—Call for help unless you need it. That is no joking matter.
- 2—Go swimming right after eating or directly after any vigorous exercise.
- 3—Stay in sun over half hour on first exposure.
- 4—Take dogs on beach without leash.

program by the transplanting of American Beach Grass may be seen in the Camp Wellfleet area.

Naturalist-guided walks will be offered and illustrated talks will be given each evening at the amphitheater near the Seashore Headquarters at Eastham. There is no charge for these services. Interpretive exhibits will be located throughout the area to tell the story of the natural history and history. Such exhibits may be observed this summer at the Pilgrim Springs area in North Truro and the site of the former Marconi Wireless Station at Camp Wellfleet.

The Seashore was authorized by Act of Congress August 7, 1961. The proposed area consists of 27,000 acres with a shoreline of 35 miles on the "Great Beach" along the Atlantic ocean, and about 12 miles on the Bay side. Areas open to the public during the 1963 season will be the Coast Guard Beach area in Eastham, the Province Lands at Provincetown, the Pilgrim Spring State Park area in North Truro, and the former Camp Wellfleet Military area in Wellfleet. All other areas are still predominantly under private ownership and will not be open to visitors until the land acquisition program is further advanced.

Visitors are requested to strictly observe private property rights.

EASTHAM HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Eastham Historical Society was founded early this year by a group of interested residents.

The object of the Society is to create and foster an interest in the Town of Eastham; to promote historical research; to collect and preserve relics and documents and to provide for their proper custody.
